Subject: Re: Consider Urgent

Dear Peter,

I think I can answer to the question, posed in your response to the email from Alec Renwick, NEMT Chairperson, what has gone wrong in the last two years?

The answer is the elevation of Mr Barnard to be the director of the Charity.

I have not been privileged to see the minutes of the Annual General Meetings for at least two years but I see that he signs himself as a Director in his last email.

Separately: Mr Renwick's comment, that I have conspired with anyone to scam the website nemaritimetrust.co.uk with unauthorised data, is ridiculous, as is the falsehood: An attempt to remove his access from our website about two years ago has obviously been circumvented.

It has never been his or their website. Nemaritimetrust.co.uk has been in my name from the time that NEMT became a charity and there is nothing Messrs Renwick and Barnard can do about it, that is, if they desire to keep the North East Maritime Trust as a charity.

Kind regards,
Mick
